L&T staff report

Satanta Indian Anthony Crump will be returning to the field for Thursday's home game against the Deerfield Spartans.

Crump will be flown into the field before the game via LifeTeam chopper to present the game ball to the referees.

On Sept. 6, Crump suffered a broken C3 vertebrae, damage to tendons and spinal cord, and a hematoma. Crump had been left completely paralyzed by the injury to his spinal cord.

Parent's night and festivities will begin at 5 p.m., and the chopper will be arriving at 6:55 p.m.
