South's eighth grade girls basketball team traveled to Dodge City Thursday and moved to 1-1 on the season with a 24-12 win over the Cardinals.

The win was the first for Apache coach Kristen Dolen.

The eighth B-team lost 18-10.

South's seventh graders hosted Dodge City and fell to 0-2 with a 15-4 loss. South's only points came in the second half with a basket from Arely Valenzuela in the third quarter and a basket from Mikayla Zapien in the fourth.

The seventh B-team lost 20-9.
