Free throws, free throws, free throws.

South's eighth grade lost in double overtime to Dodge City Comanche, 13-12, but they had several chances to put the game away at the free throw line and couldn't take advantage.

The Lady Apaches only made five of 32 free throw attempts in the one-point loss.

South led at the end of the first quarter and at halftime. but Comanche rallied in the fourth quarter to take an 11-10 lead before Patty Alfaro made one of two free throws to send the game to overtime.
