

By EARL WATT

• Leader & Times

After a disappointing one point double overtime loss to Butler on Friday, Seward responded with a vengeance on Saturday.

Niem Stevenson's 23 points helped Seward crush Raleigh's Finest, 104-69.

Five Saints scored in double figures in the win.

Seward improved its free throw shooting from the dismal 49 percent effort against Butler and

Bridgeforth scores double double in 104-69 win

Monday, 25 November 2013 11:30

---

knocked down 79 percent against Raleigh's Finest, making 22 of 28 attempts. The night before, Seward only made 26 of 53 attempts in a 99-98 loss.

Saturday, Seward jumped out to a 48-33 halftime lead and poured in 56 points in the second half for the 104-69 win.

Brian Bridgeforth recorded a double double, scoring 11 points and 11 rebounds in the win.

Secean Johnson has started to demonstrate his ability for the aints and followed his 16-point performance against Butler with 22 against Raleigh's Finest.

Evan Allen scored 13, and Tyreke Sharp added 12.

Seward moved to 4-4 and will travel to Scottsbluff, Neb., Friday to face Northeastern to open a two-day Thanksgiving weekend classic. Saturday, Seward will face Western Nebraska.