The Tyrone Lady Bobcats ran into a stout defense Thursday night as the Balko Lady Bison held Tyrone to just seven made field goals in a 41-23 romp.

The Lady Bison defense held Tyrone to single digits in every quarter and only once allowed more than five points. Five of Tyrone's seven made shots were threes to help the score look a little better.

After one Balko led 9-5, and with a 12-8 advantage in the second led 21-13 at the half.

The Lady Bison took complete control in the third, outscoring Tyrone 14-5 to extend their lead to 17 heading into the fourth.

Kylie Edwards led the Lady Bison with 15 points, and Madison Dearmin added 10.
