Shattuck 17-8 in the fourth to win by 28.

Class B No.1 Forgan will face possibly their toughest opponent of the season so far in the championship game scheduled for Saturday at 7:45. The Bulldogs will take on Class A No.7 Laverne (10-1) who is just coming into their own after a late start to the season due to a long football season after winning their second straight state title.

Laverne reached the finals by defeating Beaver 75-60 in their semifinal game Friday night.
