The Meade Buffaloes took care of business against the Southwestern Heights Mustangs with a strong first half that led to a 67-57 win to reach the finals of the Hi-Plains League Tournament.

Jett Little led the Buffaloes offense with 26 points; Morgan Davis added 14, and Morgan Olvera scored 10.

Meade got their offense going early in the game, outscoring the Mustangs 20-14 in the first quarter.

The Buffaloes built on their lead in the second quarter with a 16-11 advantage to lead 36-25 at half.

Heights tightened up their defense in the third, but could not make up any ground with both teams scoring 14 points.

Heights outscored Meade 18-17 in the fourth, but it was too little, too late as Meade advanced with the 10-point win.
