The Redskins and Lady Redskins earned a split Thursday during a home bowling triangular with Holcomb and Garden City.

Connor Wilson led the Redskins with a 608 series including a 246. Hunter Reinhart tossed a 588 series, and the Redskins scored a 2,983 as a team for a second place finish. Liberal topped Holcomb who tossed a 2,667, but the Buffaloes dominated scoring the three top individual performances of the day to rack up a team total of 3,385.

The Lady Redskins were led by Kaleigh Cobb who tossed a 523 series. Katie Jennings turned in Liberal's second-best performance with a 504 series including a game high of 198.

As a team, the Lady Redskins scored a 2,385, good enough to top Holcomb's 2,258 but not enough to beat Garden City's 3,000. The Lady Buffaloes also swept all three top performances at the event.
