South suffered a setback Tuesday against Ark River League-leading Kenneth Henderson.

South lost the A-game 56-30.

The Apaches started out in an even battle and had tied the Falcons

8-8 in the first quarter.

But Kenneth Henderson scored the next 12 points to take a 20-8 lead.

By halftime Kenneth Henderson had extended to a 34-17 advantage.

Another strong third quarter gave the Falcons a 54-24 edge. The Apache defense toughened up in the final quarter and held the Falcon reserves to a single bucket while scoring six points of their own for the 56-30 final.

South was led by Marcus Phillips who scored 16 points. Kyler Ward added 10.

In the B-game, South struggled offensively in a 24-18 loss.
