The Meade Lady Buffaloes opened the 2A sub-state playoffs with a rousing 40-point win over the Sublette Lady Larks, 69-29.

The Lady Buffaloes offense exploded out of the gate, scoring 29 points in the opening period to go up by 19.

In the second quarter, it was all defense for Meade as the Lady Buffs held Sublette to just 2 points, and pushed their lead to 35 (47-12) at halftime.

Meade breezed through the second half, getting their starters and key reserves plenty of rest.

Eleven different Lady Buffaloes scored with Natalie Thompson's 15 leading the way. Jaylin Stapleton added 12, and Beth Lewis 10.

Meade (16-4) will take on Leoti-Wichita County tomorrow at Syracuse.
