The Meade Buffaloes got off to a great start, then maintained in a 77-62 victory over the Sublette Larks in the first round of the sub-state playoffs.

Morgan Davis led the Buffs with 20 points, including a pair of threes. Tristan Lewis added 14, and Aaron Gleason knocked down a pair from beyond the arc on his way to 12 points.

In all, nine players scored for the Buffaloes.

Meade started the game well, jumping out to a 16-8 lead. The Buffaloes continued to build their lead with a 20-11 advantage in the second quarter to go up 36-19 at the half.

Sublette got their offense going in the second half with 17 points in the third and 26 in the fourth, but Meade stayed with the Larks throughout the second half to win by 15.

Meade (17-3) will take on Ness City, who upset Elkhart in the first round, Friday at Syracuse.
