Megan Campbell continued to pace the Lady Redskin golf team Tuesday by shooting a 49 on a nine-hole course in the Western Athletic Conference tournament.

Campbell finished ninth overall.

A score of 40 from Makinse Thayer was the tournament winner.

Jamie Brond and Evan Sumner carded 60, Meghan Hanna shot a 74 and Katie Jennings rounded out the scoring with a 78.

"I am excited with where we are at right now," Liberal coach Kody Thexton said. "I think we have a real good shot at sending some girls to state."

The Regional golf tournament will take place Monday at Smoky Hill Country Club in Hays.
