Dodge City JV quad

Liberal's junior varsity girls visited Dodge City on Saturday for its season-ending quad with the Lady Demons, Garden City and Great Bend.

Liberal went 0-3 on the day, opening with a 25-14, 25-16 loss to Garden City.

Against Dodge City, Liberal fell 25-11, 25-15, the finished with a 25-15, 25-16 loss to Great Bend.

"We struggled all day to get something started," said JV coach Jessica Pahl. "I felt we played good, we just could not put more than one play together at a time."

Shaquill Bond had 10 blocks and four kills for the day, while Micah Hasik had 19 digs for the day.

"Over all for the season I was very happy with the girls," Pahl said. "We improved a lot from last year. I'm excited to keep working with the girls."
