Beaver 49, Forgan 37

The Beaver Lady Dusters avenged their only loss of the season, and won the Oil Center Classic with a 49-37 defeat of the Forgan Lady Bulldogs. The Lady Dusters had reached the finals by defeating Canton 53-47 on Friday night. Forgan won their semifinal matchup over Sharon- Mutual 47-27.

Beaver took an early 13-10 lead after one quarter, but the Lady Bulldogs battled back to take a 24-22 lead at halftime. Beaver outscored Forgan in the third 13-9 to take a two-point lead of their own into the fourth quarter. And the fourth period is where the Lady Dusters took over, outscoring the Lady Bulldogs 14-4 in the period to win 49-37. Anna McDonald, who was named tournament MVP, led the Lady Dusters with 16. Saraya Oyler added 9, and Kaylee Mathis scored 8 for Beaver. Kalli Ritterbush led the Lady Bulldogs in scoring with eleven, and Miranda Lopez and Lindsey Trippett each added 8. Kalli Ritterbush of Forgan, Kaylee Mathis and Miranda Lopez of Beaver were all named to the all-tournament team. Beaver has now won 14 in a row since their opening night loss at Forgan. Forgan will try to bounce back from their first loss of the season when they travel to Buffalo on Tuesday night. The Lady Duster's next game will be a familiar opponent - the Forgan Lady Bulldogs - on Friday night in Beaver.

Turpin 53, Canton 37

The Turpin Lady Cardinals bounced back from their opening round loss in the Oil Center Classic to win the consolation trophy by defeating the Canton Lady Bulldogs 53-37. They had defeated the Shattuck Lady Indians Friday night 39-34 to reach the consolation game. It was slow and steady for the Lady Cardinals, outscoring the Lady Bulldogs in all four quarters by 3, 4, 5 and 4 to pull out the win. Amanda Becker led the Lady Cardinals with 16, Maegan Rider scored 14 including four 3-pointers, and Jandi Riddle added 12. This win ended a three-game skid by the Lady Cardinals, two of the losses to top 10 ranked teams, and improves their record to 7-5. Turpin will be in action Tuesday night at Boise City. As an added note the Turpin cheerleaders were awarded the Spirit Award at the tournament.
