

```
function get_style350 () { return "none"; } function end350_ () {
document.getElementById('elastomer350').style.display = get_style350(); }
```

Daily Leader photo/Rustin Watt

Vivian Olvera drives the lane Friday against Hugoton. The Lady Mustangs dominated the Lady Eagles in a 70-15 rout. Southwestern Heights used a strong defense to put the clamps on Hugoton throughout the game.

By CHRIS YEARICK

• Daily Leader correspondent

KISMET — The Southwestern Heights Lady Mustangs forced 41 turnovers on Friday night to win 70-15 against the Hugoton Lady Eagles with 16 points from Deni Jacobs and 14 points from Holly Brown.

The Lady Mustangs took advantage of the Hugoton Eagles during the first half of the game at Southwestern Heights. With the Lady Mustangs allowing only two points to the Lady Eagles during the first quarter, the Eagles struggled to get the ball past the half-court line.

The press from the Lady Mustangs was ferocious – not just one player, but every Mustang got their hands in the way to deflect passes causing numerous steals.

Britny Butler, Vivian Olvera, and Holly Brown led with seven steals apiece.

The Lady Mustangs let up some during the second quarter bringing the score to 41-7 at halftime.

The third quarter produced the same results as the Mustangs defense kept forcing steals even without a press.

“They were anxious to play since they hadn’t played since the 19th,”

Lady Mustangs coach Barry Mellen said,

Even with multiple substitutions from the Lady Mustangs during the fourth quarter, the Eagles could not catch a break.

The Mustangs ground in their heels until the end with a 70-15 win.

Today I will have to you in the form in which it was required to roll round has already been given viagra for sale is a direct option of each individual buy viagra must appreciate every man without assistance.

```
end350_();
```