Beaver, Okla. —

It is called “Beaver County Bedlam” by many in the towns of Beaver and Forgan , Okla.: two rival towns that are just six miles apart. It was most certainly “Bedlam” Friday night at the Duster Dome as the Beaver Lady Dusters defeated Forgan 44-38.

Beaver was led by SaRaya Oyler who scored 15 points in the win. The Lady Dusters had a 21-16 lead at halftime, but were then outscored 14-2 in the third quarter.

It was a tale of two quarters, though, as in the fourth quarter Beaver rallied to victory behind two big three pointers by Erin Becker and Anna McDonald which helped spark a 21-8 fourth quarter advantage for Beaver.

The Lady Dusters took the regular season series 2-1 between the two schools. Forgan won the opener 45-44 in November. Beaver earned revenge a week ago from Saturday when they beat the Lady Bulldogs

49-37 in the Oil Center Classic.

Forgan drops to 9-2 on the season. Beaver improves to 15-1. The two teams' only losses have come from each other.
