Leader & Times staff report

A last second escape resulted in a state championship for Justin McPhail Saturday in Wichita.

After reaching the final and building a 3-1 lead, McPhail found himself on his back when Kyle Pacheco from Gardner Edgerton tied the match 3-3.

With only seconds remaining and overtime looming, McPhail was able to recover and escape just as the final horn sounded. The official awarded McPhail the escape point, and he had won the state championship.
