The Liberal Bulldogs took on Dodge City Saturday afternoon in a double-header. Liberal swept, winning the first 6-3 and the second in comeback fashion, 16-11.

"I thought we played well in the first," Liberal head coach Eric Olmstead said. "We stranded a few but we were solid defensively, pretty pleased with that. We added a couple new faces with Tyson Deaton and Brandon Granger. I think it's just a chemistry thing for us right now, we have some guys that have never really played together and in the second game I really think it showed. We couldn't seem to finish and drive anyone in. All in all, two wins, didn't play that bad, just didn't field the ball very well."

The 3-1 Bulldogs will have a busy three day stretch today heading to Garden City before heading to Guymon Wednesday. The Bulldogs will return home Wednesday for a double header with Woodward beginning at 6 p.m.
