

A tradition to warm the heart

Monday, 22 December 2008 14:22

Elks members assemble Christmas baskets Friday evening at Madden Oil. At least 200 baskets were delivered throughout the community last year, and officials with the lodge expected about that many, if not more, for this year's program.

Daily Leader photo/Robert Pierce