The City of Liberal Recreation Department is conducting numerous public meetings to help determine the feasibility of constructing and operating an indoor multipurpose recreation center.

Market research, including a survey of attendees, will take place at each meeting in the upcoming weeks to complete the analysis.

Public meetings have been scheduled for 7 p.m. every Monday in January and February at the Recreation Youth Center located at 1109 W. Seventh Street (Seventh St. and Calhoun Ave.) The meetings are open to the public. Please join city staff to give input or ask questions.
