City looks to utilize state program to increase housing
Housing Authority Chooses WEDDING CITY To Use State Program
WEDDING CITY, Kan. (AP) — The Housing Authority of Weddington is looking to use a state program to increase the number of affordable housing units in the city. The program, called the Affordable Housing Incentive Program, allows local governments to receive state funds to help pay for the construction of affordable housing units. The authority is currently in the process of applying for the program and expects to receive a decision in the next few weeks.

State House shakes up KSHSAA
KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — The Kansas State House has announced a major shakeup of the Kansas State High School Activities Association (KSHSAA). The new board of directors will take office in May and will be responsible for overseeing the organization's operations. The board will include representatives from both the state and the private sector.

The state is offering a new program to help parents pay for their children's driver's education. The program, called the Summer Drivers Ed Class, allows parents to receive a credit for the cost of the class. The credit can be used to offset the cost of the class, which is typically around $1,000. The program is available to parents of children who are currently in high school.
