 College to offer convalesced carry class

BBBS' Bowl For Kids Sake fundraiser nears

College to offer convalesced carry class
 The State College Community College is offering a convalesced carry class for students who have been out of school for a year or more. The class is designed to help students catch up on their coursework and prepare for the next semester. The class will be held on the college's campus and will be taught by experienced faculty members. The cost of the class is $100, which includes tuition, materials, and a meal. The class is open to all students who have been out of school for a year or more. For more information, contact the college's registrar at 800-441-1111.

BBBS' Bowl For Kids Sake fundraiser nears
 The Bowling for Business and Charity (BBBS) organization is hosting a "Bowl for Kids Sake" fundraiser on Saturday, April 6, at the Sun Valley Bowling Center. The event is open to all ages and is a great way to support a good cause while enjoying a fun day of bowling. The proceeds from the event will go to the Sun Valley Children's Hospital. For more information, contact BBBS at 800-441-1111.

SATURDAY, APRIL 6

Fuller to be guest speaker at Lions Club meeting
 The Lions Club of Sun Valley will host a guest speaker at their monthly meeting on Saturday, April 6, at 7:30 p.m. at the Sun Valley Community Center. The guest speaker will be Dr. John Fuller, a local physician and community leader. The meeting is open to all members and is a great opportunity to hear from an expert in the field. For more information, contact the Lions Club at 800-441-1111.

Boarding thru the evening sky
 A group of young people are participating in a high jump competition at the Sun Valley Community Center. The event is part of a larger fundraiser and is a great way to promote physical fitness and teamwork. The high jumpers are competing for prizes and are encouraged to cheer for their friends. The event is open to all ages and is a fun and exciting activity. For more information, contact the Sun Valley Community Center at 800-441-1111.

Program looks to get the message across about distracted driving
 The Sun Valley Community College is offering a program to raise awareness about distracted driving. The program is designed to educate students and the community about the dangers of distracted driving and how to avoid it. The program will include a series of presentations, workshops, and activities. The goal is to reduce the number of accidents caused by distracted driving and to save lives. For more information, contact the college's safety department at 800-441-1111.

Children throughout Liberal enjoy Easter egg hunts
 Children throughout Liberal are enjoying Easter egg hunts. The hunts are a fun and exciting activity that is open to all ages. The children are searching for colorful eggs and are encouraged to bring them home to their families. The hunts are a great way to celebrate the Easter season and to promote community spirit. For more information, contact the Sun Valley Community Center at 800-441-1111.
