

LEADER & TIMES
Your daily news & views for 120 years

THURSDAY APRIL 4, 2013 $1

High Plains DOWNLOADS

Sign up for Summer Drivers Ed classes soon being accepted

DEADLINE FRIDAY

Recreation Dept. to offer Zumba fitness class

STARTING THURSDAY

American Legion Auxiliary to meet Thursday

TODAY

Liberal man dies in 1-vehicle roll-over

Small plane crash near Guyton kills 2

NASA astronaut presents lecture

Students learn dangers of distracted driving include death

Jack Caselle

Should college athletes get paid?

The Big Bang Theory: God Spoke and BANG! It happened!

Slow Smokin BBQ Home of the BIG WOODY!

WILLIAMS ROCK AND VOTE 9 TUNA BEEF, 2014-2015 VOTE 48 ONE OF AMERICAN BEEF RESTAURANTS

Liberal man dies in 1-vehicle roll-over

By Jeffery M. Smith
A 48-year-old liberal man died Tuesday after his car rolled over on a highway near Guyton. The driver, identified as James R. Williams, was traveling south on Highway 101 near the intersection of Highway 101 and Highway 101. The car rolled over onto its side and caught fire. Williams was pronounced dead at the scene. The cause of the crash is still under investigation.

Small plane crash near Guyton kills 2

By Jeffery M. Smith
A small plane crashed near Guyton Tuesday, killing two people. The plane, a Cessna 441, was flying from Guyton to Guyton. It crashed into a field near the intersection of Highway 101 and Highway 101. The pilot and a passenger were killed. The cause of the crash is still under investigation.

NASA astronaut presents lecture

By Jeffery M. Smith
A NASA astronaut presented a lecture at the University of South Carolina on Tuesday. The astronaut, Scott Kelly, spoke to a group of students and faculty members. He discussed his experiences in space and the challenges of living in space. The lecture was part of a series of events celebrating the anniversary of the Apollo 11 mission.

Students learn dangers of distracted driving include death

By Jeffery M. Smith
Students at the University of South Carolina learned the dangers of distracted driving on Tuesday. A presentation was held in a classroom, showing the consequences of distracted driving. The presentation included statistics on the number of accidents caused by distracted driving and the potential for death. The students were encouraged to stay focused while driving.

Recreation Dept. to offer Zumba fitness class

By Jeffery M. Smith
The Recreation Department at the University of South Carolina will offer a Zumba fitness class on Thursday. The class will be held in the Recreation Center. Zumba is a fitness program that combines dance and aerobic exercise. The class is designed for people of all fitness levels. The Recreation Department is offering this class as part of its commitment to providing a variety of fitness options for students.

American Legion Auxiliary to meet Thursday

By Jeffery M. Smith
The American Legion Auxiliary will meet on Thursday at the American Legion. The meeting will be held in the Legion's meeting room. The Auxiliary is a volunteer organization that provides support and services to veterans and their families. The meeting will include a presentation on the Auxiliary's activities and a discussion of upcoming events.

TODAY

News & Life: The Best Burger Only Available Here, 40% OFF! at a Super Duper Community Center

News & Life: The Best Burger Only Available Here, 40% OFF! at a Super Duper Community Center

News & Life: The Best Burger Only Available Here, 40% OFF! at a Super Duper Community Center