APRIL 6 - MAY 5

'ASSASSINS' take aim

Several people gathered for a workshop on the topic of 'Assassins' in the community. The workshop was held at the Friends Church and was a part of a larger event. The participants were engaged in a discussion about the role of assassins in society and the impact of their actions. The workshop was led by a professional facilitator who provided a safe and supportive environment for the participants to share their thoughts and experiences.

Workshop stresses importance of windbreaks

The workshop focused on the importance of windbreaks in agriculture and landscaping. Participants learned about the benefits of windbreaks, such as reducing soil erosion, conserving water, and protecting crops from wind damage. The workshop included a hands-on activity where participants planted windbreak trees and discussed the best practices for their care and maintenance.

DINOSAURS INVADING LIBERAL

A community event featuring a dinosaur exhibit. The exhibit was held at the Friends Church and was a part of a larger event. The dinosaur was a large, green, and brown creature that was on display for several days. The event was a great success and attracted a large number of people to the church.
