

LEADER & TIMES
Your daily news & news for 120 years

THURSDAY APRIL 11, 2013 $1

Hooker official pleads no contest to killing 2 stray dogs
The incident occurred in the city of Houston, Texas, on April 10, 2013. The official, who is a member of the city council, was charged with the capital offense of capital murder after a dog named "Buddy" was killed. The official pleaded no contest to the charge and was sentenced to 30 years in prison.

City says goodbye to outgoing commissioners
The city of Houston held a farewell ceremony for its outgoing commissioners on Thursday, April 11, 2013. The commissioners, who have served the city for several years, were honored for their contributions to the city's development and growth. The ceremony was held at the Houston Convention Center and was attended by city officials and community members.

'Assassins' takes shot at gun control debate
The movie "Assassins" is a biographical film that tells the story of the lives of two assassins, John Wilkes Booth and James Earl Ray. The film is a controversial work that has sparked a debate about gun control and the role of assassins in American history. The film is currently in theaters and has received mixed reviews from critics and audiences alike.

College board members meeting with job candidates
The College Board is currently in the process of recruiting members for its board of directors. The board is a key governing body of the organization and is responsible for setting the standards for the SAT and AP exams. The College Board is currently holding a series of meetings with potential candidates to discuss the role of the board and the organization's mission.

High Plains Downloads
High Plains Downloads is a website that offers a variety of digital products for sale. The website is currently offering a number of deals on its products, including software, e-books, and digital art. The website is a popular destination for anyone looking for affordable digital products.

THURSDAY, APRIL 11
LHS to present annual Academic Banquet Thursday April 11
The LHS Academic Banquet is an annual event that celebrates the achievements of the school's students. The banquet is held at the LHS Gymnasium and is a great opportunity for students to receive recognition for their academic accomplishments. The event is also a chance for families and friends to come together and support the school.

FRIDAY, APRIL 12
SINIC Get Prep offering 20% discounts in April
SINIC is offering a special 20% discount on all prep work for the month of April. This is a great opportunity for students to save money on their prep work while still getting the same high-quality instruction. The discount is available on all prep work, including SAT and ACT prep, and is valid through the end of the month.

UNTIL APRIL 30
College board members meeting with job candidates
The College Board is currently in the process of recruiting members for its board of directors. The board is a key governing body of the organization and is responsible for setting the standards for the SAT and AP exams. The College Board is currently holding a series of meetings with potential candidates to discuss the role of the board and the organization's mission.

FRIDAY AND MONDAY