BE Liberal begins grassroots effort to mobilize community

Rebrot helps establish community vision statement

When a local group of citizens from a variety of backgrounds gathered to discuss the future of the community, the first order of business was to establish a vision statement for the community. This was the goal of the grassroots effort led by Rebrot, a local business owner and community leader. The group met for several weeks to discuss the future of the community and to establish a vision statement that would guide the community's future. The vision statement was adopted by the community and will be used to guide the community's future.

Dual-language instruction may come to an end

Board contemplates whether program should continue

The school board is considering whether to discontinue its dual-language instruction program. The board is currently in a meeting to discuss the program and whether it should continue. The program has been in place for several years and has been successful in helping students learn a second language. However, the board is concerned about the cost of the program and whether it is worth the investment. The board will make a decision on whether to continue the program in the coming weeks.
