BE Liberal begins grassroots effort to mobilize community

By David Brown

When a local group of citizens from a variety of backgrounds and political persuasions get together to discuss a common goal, it is called a grassroots effort. That is what is happening in Kamloops as the Liberal Party of Canada begins its grassroots effort to mobilize the community.

The idea is to get people who are not currently active in the party to get involved. The idea is to get people who are not currently active in the party to get involved. The idea is to get people who are not currently active in the party to get involved.

Dual-language instruction may come to an end

By David Brown

The British Columbia Council of Education (BCEC) has announced that it will be reviewing the dual-language instruction program in British Columbia. The program, which was introduced in 1997, allows students to learn in both English and a second language.
