BE Liberal begins grassroots effort to mobilize community

When a local group of citizens from a variety of backgrounds and ethnicities met to discuss the future of the community, the result was a vision statement for a neighborhood that is both inclusive and forward-looking.

The group, which met on Monday at the community center, was the first of its kind in the area. The vision statement will be used to guide the community's future development and to help mobilize the community's resources.

The vision statement was developed by a group of citizens who met on Monday at the community center. The group was led by Rebert, who is the president of the community center. The vision statement was developed over the course of several weeks and will be used to guide the community's future development.

The vision statement is a document that outlines the community's goals and objectives. It is a document that will be used to guide the community's future development and to help mobilize the community's resources.
