BE Liberal begins grassroots effort to mobilize community

Rebreat helps establish community vision statement

When a local group of citizens from a variety of backgrounds gathered to discuss the future of the city, the first order of business was to establish a vision statement. The group, which is known as the "Rebreat" group, met on Monday at the city council chambers to discuss the future of the city. The group is made up of citizens from a variety of backgrounds and is focused on establishing a vision statement for the city. The vision statement will guide the city's development and will be a key part of the city's future. The group is currently working on the vision statement and will be presenting it to the city council in the near future.

Dual-language instruction may come to an end

Board contemplates whether program should continue

The school board is considering whether to continue a dual-language instruction program. The program, which is currently in place in several schools, allows students to learn in both English and Spanish. The board is currently reviewing the program and will be making a decision in the near future. The program has been successful in helping students learn both languages and has been a popular program among parents and students. However, the board is concerned about the cost of the program and whether it is sustainable in the long run. The board will be weighing these factors when making its decision.

Plains takes another step in gaining grocery store

A group of Plains residents is working to get a grocery store in the town. The group is currently working on the zoning and other issues that are necessary to get a grocery store in the town. DINOSAURS INVADING LIBERAL

Children in Liberal, Kansas, are excited about the dinosaur exhibit at the local museum. The exhibit, which is currently on display, features a variety of dinosaur skeletons and artifacts. The exhibit is a popular attraction and is drawing a large number of visitors to the museum. The children are particularly interested in the exhibit and are spending a lot of time looking at the skeletons and artifacts. The museum is currently open from 10:00 AM to 5:00 PM, and the exhibit will be on display until the end of the month.
