BE Liberal begins grassroots effort to mobilize community

By Dan Smith

When a local group of citizens from a variety of backgrounds and ethnicities gathered for a meeting last week to discuss the future of the community, the focus of the discussion was not a political party or a political candidate, but a common goal: to establish a grassroots effort to mobilize the community.

The group, which is now known as the BE Liberal, met at the home of Dan Smith, a local resident who has been instrumental in the formation of the group. The group's goal is to establish a grassroots effort to mobilize the community and to support the Liberal Party in the upcoming election.

The group's first meeting was held on Monday, April 8, at Smith's home. The group discussed the current political climate and the need for a grassroots effort to mobilize the community. The group also discussed the need for a community vision statement and the need for a grassroots effort to mobilize the community.

The group's second meeting was held on Tuesday, April 9, at the home of Dan Smith. The group discussed the need for a community vision statement and the need for a grassroots effort to mobilize the community. The group also discussed the need for a grassroots effort to mobilize the community.

The group's third meeting was held on Wednesday, April 10, at the home of Dan Smith. The group discussed the need for a community vision statement and the need for a grassroots effort to mobilize the community. The group also discussed the need for a grassroots effort to mobilize the community.

The group's fourth meeting was held on Thursday, April 11, at the home of Dan Smith. The group discussed the need for a community vision statement and the need for a grassroots effort to mobilize the community. The group also discussed the need for a grassroots effort to mobilize the community.

The group's fifth meeting was held on Friday, April 12, at the home of Dan Smith. The group discussed the need for a community vision statement and the need for a grassroots effort to mobilize the community. The group also discussed the need for a grassroots effort to mobilize the community.
