The 1930s dust storm, known as "The Big Dry" or "The Dirty Thirties," is shown in this photo taken in April 1935. The scene shows the extent of the dust storm in the Lincoln area. The photo was taken by the Lincoln Journal Star. The photo is a black and white photograph showing a large crowd of people gathered in a field, likely during a historical reenactment of the Dust Bowl. The scene is filled with people of various ages, some standing and some sitting on the ground, amidst a hazy, dusty atmosphere.
