Superintendent Stout to resign, will leave Liberal
By Steve Stout
The superintendent of the Liberal Public Schools, Steve Stout, announced today that he will be resigning from his position and leaving the district after 12 years. Stout, who has been in the position since 2001, will be leaving the district at the end of the school year in June. Stout's resignation was announced by school board member Nick Walker. Stout will be leaving the district to pursue other opportunities. Stout's resignation was announced at a meeting of the school board on Thursday. Stout was praised for his leadership and dedication to the district. Stout will be leaving the district with a positive reputation and a strong network of supporters.
