Hugoton super: ACLU bullying district
A Libertarian group is pushing for a referendum to change the name of the district from Hugoton to a name that reflects the area's history. The group, the Libertarian Party of Hugoton, is currently gathering signatures for a referendum. The referendum would be held in the next general election. The group is arguing that the name Hugoton is a misnomer and that the area's history is better reflected by the name of the district's founder, John C. Brown.
