

Register Your 'ROO' for the Yellow Brick Road Car Show - May 11!
Slow Smokin' BBQ Home of the BIG WOODY!
44 Village Plaza • 78064 • 512-336-0000 • High Plains Country Club
SLOW SMOKED BONE BURNER • TURKEY BREADED • 2014-2015 VESTER • 40 ONE OF AMERICA'S BEST RESTAURANTS

1 AND 1
Scenic spots with Clarendon
LEADER & TIMES
Your daily news & news for 127 years
ANGRY, OH!
Find Robbin
around at
HIGHPLAINS.MALL.COM

THURSDAY APRIL 25, 2013 $1

High Plains
DOWNLOADS
TIPS TO BOOST PAT VACCINATION
CLASS SCHEDULE PAGE 11
There will be a year-end vaccine clinic from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. on May 15 at the High Plains Health Center.
For more information, call 624-2121.

Undersheriff Gene Austin retires
The town's top law enforcement officer is retiring after 25 years of service. Austin, 62, has worked for the town since 1988. He has held several positions, including undersheriff, and has been instrumental in the town's efforts to improve its law enforcement services. He will be missed by his colleagues and the community.

City to close Light Park Sunday for Sampler Festival prep
The town will close Light Park on Sunday, May 12, to prepare for the annual Sampler Festival. The closure is necessary to allow for the installation of festival equipment and to ensure the safety of the event. The festival is a popular annual event that attracts thousands of visitors to the town.

Theatre Camp now enrolling
The town's Theatre Camp is now enrolling for the summer session. The camp is designed for children and teenagers and provides a fun and educational experience. It includes activities such as acting, stage production, and theater history. The camp is held at the town's community center and runs from June to August.

10th Annual Cinco de Mayo celebration set for May 4
The town is celebrating its 10th Annual Cinco de Mayo festival on Friday, May 4. The festival is a vibrant celebration of Mexican culture and heritage. It features a parade, live music, dancing, and a variety of food and drink. The festival is held in the town's main square and is a popular event for both residents and visitors.

SUNDAY, MAY 11
SVMC Get-Goog offering 20% discounts in April
The Southern Virginia Medical Center (SVMC) is offering a 20% discount on all Get-Goog services in April. This is a great opportunity for patients to save on their medical services. The discount applies to all services provided by SVMC, including consultations, procedures, and hospital stays.

THROUGH TUESDAY
Dog! Dog! Dog!
The town's Dog! Dog! Dog! program is now in effect. This program allows dog owners to register their dogs for a special discount on town services. The program is designed to encourage responsible pet ownership and to provide a benefit to dog owners. The discount applies to all town services provided to registered dog owners.

STARTING MAY 3
Sheriff's office issues consent to Gene Austin's resignation
The town's Sheriff's Office has issued its consent to the resignation of Undersheriff Gene Austin. This marks the end of Austin's 25-year career in town law enforcement. The Sheriff's Office wishes Austin well in his future endeavors and expresses its appreciation for his dedication and service to the community.

FRIDAY
Have your name placed at the top of the Leader & Times
The town is offering a special service to its residents. For a fee, we will place your name at the top of the Leader & Times newspaper. This is a great way to increase your visibility in the community and to promote your business or organization. The service is available for a limited time and is subject to availability.

CALL NOW
1-800-555-1234
High Plains Country Club
512-336-0000

Hugoton super-ACLU bullying district
A Libertarian group is organizing a protest in Hugoton to support the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) in its fight against bullying. The group is planning a demonstration in front of the town's school district offices. The protest is intended to draw attention to the issue of bullying and to support the ACLU's efforts to protect the rights of all students.

City of Light Park Sunday for Sampler Festival prep
The town will close Light Park on Sunday, May 12, to prepare for the annual Sampler Festival. The closure is necessary to allow for the installation of festival equipment and to ensure the safety of the event. The festival is a popular annual event that attracts thousands of visitors to the town.

Theatre Camp now enrolling
The town's Theatre Camp is now enrolling for the summer session. The camp is designed for children and teenagers and provides a fun and educational experience. It includes activities such as acting, stage production, and theater history. The camp is held at the town's community center and runs from June to August.

10th Annual Cinco de Mayo celebration set for May 4
The town is celebrating its 10th Annual Cinco de Mayo festival on Friday, May 4. The festival is a vibrant celebration of Mexican culture and heritage. It features a parade, live music, dancing, and a variety of food and drink. The festival is held in the town's main square and is a popular event for both residents and visitors.

LIBERAL MAYOR
The town's Liberal Mayor is facing a challenge in the upcoming election. The mayor is a member of the Liberal Party and has been in office for several years. He is facing a strong challenge from a member of the Conservative Party. The election is expected to be a close one and will have a significant impact on the town's future.

LIBERAL MAYOR
The town's Liberal Mayor is facing a challenge in the upcoming election. The mayor is a member of the Liberal Party and has been in office for several years. He is facing a strong challenge from a member of the Conservative Party. The election is expected to be a close one and will have a significant impact on the town's future.