Robert Davis Nurseries and Plant Services, Inc. is offering a variety of plants and trees for the spring planting season.

Planting tips, when real spring arrives

Despite the fact that temperatures are in the 40s, it's still not the best time to plant. Gardeners are advised to wait until the soil has warmed up and the weather is more consistently in the 50s. This is the best time to plant most vegetables and flowers. For trees and shrubs, it's better to wait until the weather is in the 60s. This is the best time to plant most trees and shrubs. For lawns, it's best to wait until the weather is in the 70s. This is the best time to plant most lawns.

Garden City school district community approach differs from that of Liberal

Liberal's school district has a different approach to budgeting than Garden City's. Garden City's approach is more conservative, while Liberal's is more aggressive. Garden City's approach is based on a long-term plan, while Liberal's is based on short-term needs. Garden City's approach is more focused on education, while Liberal's is more focused on other services. Garden City's approach is more transparent, while Liberal's is more opaque. Garden City's approach is more collaborative, while Liberal's is more adversarial. Garden City's approach is more sustainable, while Liberal's is less so.
