Brenda Gentry, Garden City School District superintendent, stands behind a table at the community meeting.

Garden City school district community approach differs from that of Liberal

By Jeffery Miles
 Garden City school district superintendent Brenda Gentry says the district's approach to budgeting differs from that of Liberal, Kansas, during a community meeting. Gentry says the district's approach is more collaborative and involves a wider range of stakeholders. She notes that the district is currently reviewing budget options and will present them to the community in the coming weeks.

Planting tips, when real spring arrives

By Jeffery Miles
 As the weather warms and the days lengthen, it's time to think about planting in your garden. Here are some tips to help you get started. First, choose plants that are suitable for your climate and soil type. Second, make sure you have the right tools and equipment. Finally, don't forget to water your plants regularly to help them establish themselves.
