State explains increased employment numbers

The state's economy is showing signs of recovery, with employment numbers increasing in several key sectors. This growth is attributed to a combination of factors, including increased government spending and a rebound in the private sector. The state's unemployment rate has decreased from 10.5% in 2010 to 8.5% in 2013. For more information, contact the state's economic development office at 781-333-1234.
