Policy change coming for prom escorts

High Plains
A 12th-grade student is expected to be the first to be escorted to prom by a parent or guardian, according to a new policy change at Dodge City High School. The school board voted Tuesday to allow parents to escort their children to prom if the student is a member of a church or other organization. The policy change is expected to be implemented at the school's prom on May 17.

Parents are being asked to sign a form to request a prom escort. The form is available at the school's website. The school board also voted to allow parents to escort their children to prom if the student is a member of a church or other organization. The policy change is expected to be implemented at the school's prom on May 17.
