Increase in regulations cause closure of FBC daycare

By KIMBERLY HARRIS
Lawrence, Kan. (KTWO) — The closure of Family Daycare Center (FBC) in Lawrence, Kan., is a result of increased regulations for daycares. The center, which has been open since 1985, was forced to close its doors in early 2013. The center's owner, Mary Ann Smith, says she was unable to afford the new regulations and was forced to shut down the business. She says she is now looking for other ways to provide childcare for the community.
