Increase in regulations cause closure of FBC daycare

By KIMBERLY HARRIS
A daycare center in High Plains has closed its doors due to an increase in regulations. The center, which had been operating for several years, was forced to shut down because it could not meet the new requirements. The regulations were implemented by the state and were very strict. The center's owners were unable to afford the costs of compliance. This is a sad situation for the community, as the center had been a valuable resource for many families.

PICK UP A CANDY SACK

College to offer cancelled carry class
The University of Kansas is offering a cancelled carry class. This class was originally scheduled for this semester but has been cancelled. Students who were enrolled in the class can pick up a candy sack as a consolation. The candy sack contains a small amount of candy and is a nice gesture from the university.
