LNEA, district breeze through contract negotiations

By Dan Rieck, Special to the Journal-News
LNEA, the local union representing the 1,200 employees of the Lincoln National Electric Association, has agreed to a new contract with the company. The agreement, which was reached after a brief period of negotiations, covers the period from May 1, 2013, to May 31, 2015. The new contract includes a 3% wage increase and a 1% increase in the cost of living allowance. It also includes provisions for improved health and dental benefits, as well as enhanced safety and training programs. The agreement was signed by LNEA President John Smith and LNEA General President John Smith. The new contract is a testament to the strong relationship between the union and the company, and it reflects the company's commitment to its employees and the community.

Seward County resolution supports state's law protecting 2nd Amendment

By Dan Rieck, Special to the Journal-News
Seward County commissioners have passed a resolution supporting the state's new law protecting the Second Amendment. The resolution, which was passed by a 4-1 vote, states that the county supports the state's effort to protect the right of law-abiding citizens to own and use firearms. The resolution also states that the county supports the state's effort to ensure that firearms are used responsibly and safely. The resolution was introduced by Commissioner Dan Rieck and was supported by Commissioners John Smith, John Smith, and John Smith. The resolution is a clear statement of the county's support for the Second Amendment and its role in protecting the rights of its citizens.

County vows to not enforce unconstitutional laws or executive orders

By Dan Rieck, Special to the Journal-News
Seward County commissioners have vowed not to enforce any laws or executive orders that they believe are unconstitutional. The resolution, which was passed by a 4-1 vote, states that the county will not enforce any laws or executive orders that violate the U.S. Constitution or the state constitution. The resolution also states that the county will not enforce any laws or executive orders that are discriminatory or that violate the rights of its citizens. The resolution was introduced by Commissioner Dan Rieck and was supported by Commissioners John Smith, John Smith, and John Smith. The resolution is a clear statement of the county's commitment to the rule of law and the protection of its citizens' rights.

3 missing women found in Ohio, 3 brothers arrested

By Dan Rieck, Special to the Journal-News
Three missing women have been found in Ohio, and three brothers have been arrested in connection with the case. The women, who were missing for several days, were found in a rural area of Ohio. The brothers, who were arrested in Ohio, are accused of kidnapping the women and holding them captive. The case has received national attention and has led to a renewed focus on the search for missing women. The women are now being treated at a hospital in Ohio, and the brothers are being held in custody. The case is still under investigation, and authorities are working to identify any other potential victims.
