LNEA, district breeze through contract negotiations

By Dan Rieck, Special to the Leader-Times
LNEA negotiators and the district's employees have reached a tentative agreement on a new contract, according to a statement from the district's chief negotiator, Scott Brown. The agreement covers wages, benefits and working conditions for the next three years. The district's employees, who represent about 1,100 workers, will receive a 3.5% raise over the next three years. The agreement also includes provisions for health care, dental, vision and life insurance. The district's chief negotiator, Scott Brown, said the agreement was reached after several weeks of negotiations. Sheriff McByde names Ward new undersheriff

By Dan Rieck, Special to the Leader-Times
Sheriff Gene McByde has named Ward as his new undersheriff. Ward, who has been with the sheriff's office for several years, will be responsible for overseeing the day-to-day operations of the office. McByde said that Ward is a highly qualified and experienced law enforcement professional. Ward will be based out of the sheriff's office in Seward County. McByde said that Ward will be working closely with the sheriff's office staff to ensure the highest level of service to the community.

Seward County resolution supports state's law protecting 2nd Amendment

By Dan Rieck, Special to the Leader-Times
Seward County commissioners have passed a resolution supporting the state's new law protecting the Second Amendment. The resolution, which was passed by a 4-1 vote, states that the county supports the state's efforts to protect the right of Americans to own and use firearms. The resolution also states that the county supports the state's efforts to ensure that firearms are used responsibly and safely. The resolution was passed during a meeting of the county commissioners on May 6, 2013.

County vows to not enforce unconstitutional laws or executive orders

By Dan Rieck, Special to the Leader-Times
Seward County commissioners have vowed not to enforce any laws or executive orders that they believe are unconstitutional. The county commissioners made this statement during a meeting on May 6, 2013. The commissioners said that they will continue to support the state's efforts to protect the Second Amendment, but they will not enforce any laws or executive orders that they believe are unconstitutional. The commissioners said that they will continue to work with the state to ensure that the rights of all Americans are protected.
