2-vehicle collision injures 1

The two-vehicle collision on Saturday afternoon on Highway 100 near the intersection of Highway 100 and Highway 100 resulted in one person being injured. The accident occurred at approximately 1:30 p.m. on Saturday, May 4, 2013. A 2012 Ford Focus was involved in the collision with a 2010 Chevrolet. The driver of the Ford Focus was injured and taken to the hospital. The driver of the Chevrolet was not injured. The cause of the collision is still under investigation.

Truancy program reports success

The Truancy Program in the High Plains area has reported a significant decrease in truancy rates over the past year. The program, which was implemented in 2011, has been successful in identifying and addressing the needs of students who are not attending school regularly. The program has provided support and resources to students and their families, resulting in a 15% decrease in truancy rates. The success of the program is a testament to the dedication and hard work of the staff and volunteers involved.

Get flocked for a local self-help advocacy group

A new self-help advocacy group for people with disabilities is set to meet regularly in the High Plains area. The group, called the "Flock of Friends" group, will provide a supportive environment for individuals with disabilities to share their experiences and learn from one another. The group will meet on the first Wednesday of each month at 7 p.m. at the High Plains Community Center. The group is open to anyone with a physical or mental disability. For more information, contact the High Plains Community Center at 704-944-4141.

Annual Stamp Out Hunger food drive nears

The annual Stamp Out Hunger food drive is set to take place on Saturday, May 11, at the High Plains Community Center. The drive is a joint effort between the High Plains Community Center and the local food bank. The goal of the drive is to collect non-perishable food items to help feed the hungry in the High Plains area. The food bank is currently in need of a variety of items, including canned soups, pasta, rice, and beans. The drive is open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday. For more information, contact the High Plains Community Center at 704-944-4141.
