Holder to face tough questioning at House hearing

By [Name] [Photo]

Attorney General Eric Holder Jr. is expected to face tough questioning at a House hearing on Wednesday. The hearing will focus on Holder's role in the Obama administration's handling of the 2008 financial crisis. Holder is expected to be questioned about his role in the creation of the Troubled Asset Relief Program (TARP) and his role in the approval of the bailout package. The hearing is being held in the House of Representatives.

City approves police purchases

The City of Annapolis has approved the purchase of new police equipment. The equipment includes a variety of vehicles, including patrol cars, SUVs, and vans. The equipment is being purchased to replace older vehicles and to improve the city's police fleet. The purchase is part of a larger program to modernize the city's police department. The equipment is expected to be delivered to the police department in the next few months.
