Alley or road?
 Alley has a street name, playgrounds later, and a long way to go

The road that will be built between the new 100th and 101st streets will be a "road" or "alley" depends on the city's decision. The city council will vote on the matter at a public hearing on Tuesday, May 21, at 7 p.m. at the city council chambers, 100 N. 10th St. The city council will also vote on whether to name the road "Alley" or "Road". The city council will also vote on whether to name the road "Alley" or "Road".

Preserving part of Seward County's forgotten history

Whisenand county look to save Springfield Cemetery

KANSAS HISTORICAL MARKER
SPRINGFIELD CEMETERY
 This cemetery was founded in 1854 by the Springfield Baptist Church. It is one of the oldest and largest cemeteries in Seward County. The cemetery contains the remains of many early settlers and pioneers of the region. It is a significant historical site and is being preserved for future generations.
