Preserving part of Seward County's forgotten history

Whisenand county look to save Springfield Cemetery

KANSAS HISTORICAL MARKER
 1850-1860
 The Springfield Cemetery is a historical landmark in Whisenand County, Kansas. It was founded in 1850 and is one of the oldest cemeteries in the county. The cemetery contains the remains of many early settlers and pioneers who came to the area in the mid-19th century. The cemetery is located on the east side of the city of Springfield, Kansas. It is a well-maintained and peaceful resting place for many generations.

STUDENTS CELEBRATE END OF SCHOOL

A group of students celebrated the end of the school year with a fun run on the track. The students were wearing orange shirts and running on a track. The event was a successful one and the students enjoyed it very much.
