ALLEY OR ROAD?
Alley has a street name, playgrounds later, and a long way to go
By David H. Hunt

Lucky '13
The road isn't all it's cracked up to be. It's a long, hard, and often lonely journey. But it's also a chance to see the world, to meet new people, and to find yourself. The road is a place of discovery, of growth, and of adventure. It's a place where you can find the things you need to survive, and where you can find the things you need to thrive. The road is a place of hope, of dreams, and of possibility. It's a place where you can find the things you need to live, and where you can find the things you need to love.

STUDENTS CELEBRATE END OF SCHOOL
A group of 100 students from the end of the school year. They are celebrating the end of a long and hard year. They are celebrating the end of a year of learning, of growth, and of discovery. They are celebrating the end of a year of challenges, of struggles, and of triumphs. They are celebrating the end of a year of memories, of experiences, and of life. They are celebrating the end of a year of everything that makes school so special.
