Liberal bids farewell to Dr. Lance Stout

Liberal nation stumbles on local artifact

The women stitched each star by hand, piecing printed diamonds into an orderly geometric pattern. Better folks, they called the differently shaped stars, were passed, some intense. Finally they added their names. Yet as all embroidered in color.

It was a labor of love, a labor of love, a labor of love. The women of Liberal, Kansas, were stitching a quilt for Dr. Lance Stout, a local physician who has been a part of the community for many years. The quilt is a tribute to his life and work, and it is a beautiful work of art. The women of the Liberal Quilt Guild are proud to have completed this project, and they are looking forward to presenting it to Dr. Stout at his retirement party.
