Liberal bids farewell to Dr. Lance Stout

Liberal nation stumbles on local artifact

The women stitched each star by hand, piecing printed diamonds into an orderly geometric pattern. Better yet, they stitched the differently hand-drawn, some printed, some intense. Finally they added their names. Yet as all embroidered in color.

It was a labor of love, a labor of love, a labor of love. The women of the Liberal Quilt Guild, a group of about 15 women, spent the last few weeks of their lives stitching this quilt.
