Kids dive into reading

Memorial Library kicks off summer reading programs

Local Memorial Library kicked off its summer reading program on Friday, June 7, with a special event at the library. The program is designed to encourage children to read during the summer months. The library has a variety of books and activities for children of all ages. The program will run through August 31. For more information, visit www.memoriallibrary.org.

Brian Weber resigning later this month

Mayor Weber to step down

Mayor Brian Weber announced that he will be resigning from his position as Mayor of Chicago later this month. He will be replaced by Mayor Rahm Emanuel. Weber has served as Mayor since 2011. He will continue to work with the city government during his transition period.

WANTED: More day care facilities

Local parents are looking for more day care facilities in their neighborhoods. The shortage of day care is a major concern for many families. The city government is working to address this issue by funding the construction of new day care centers. Parents are encouraged to contact their local city council members for more information.
